

A lavender frock of indestructible voile that won't muss much in the trunk is a useful thing for the August vacation wardrobe. The skirt is trimmed with rows of flowered ribbon.

Copyright, Underwood & Underwood.

It's not midsummer yet and here they are already talking about fall styles. This model in a hat for the autumn months is of black panne velvet.

Copyright, Underwood & Underwood.

Another fall model which illustrates the straight lines that fashion tells us are to be the thing. This gown of dark blue velour is relieved by touches of color.

Copyright, Underwood & Underwood.

Still more of the autumn idea, again in hats. It's a model of taupe beaver cloth. The crown is interwoven with velvet ribbon and the very small brim is also of velvet.

Copyright, Underwood & Underwood.

For either dinner or dance here's a delightful gown of black chiffon, heavily beaded. Silver cloth encircles the waist and lines the bodice.

Copyright, Underwood & Underwood.

An attractive example of the new ribbon hats which are quite the rage this Summer. They are most suitable for sport wear.

Copyright, Underwood & Underwood.

Brick brown moire taffeta, ruffled with feathered edges, combines to fashion this frock for the rather young women. The hat is French blue chiffon and braid.

Copyright, Western Newspaper Union.

Veils are an always necessary part of the wardrobe of every well dressed woman. Furthermore they are often quite becoming, as witness this one.

Copyright, Underwood & Underwood.

A pretty little frock of pink organdy. Each little ruffle is daintily stitched with blue, which makes the effect more youthful.

Copyright, Underwood & Underwood.